

Remarks:

According to the Academic Instruction of University, in the academic system, each theoretical credit is presented in 16 or 17 hours, each practical credit in 32 or 34 hours, and each of the workshop credit in 48 hours.

There are some different type of the courses passing by a bachelor/master/Phd student at this university, as listed below:

1. Basic
2. Major
3. Specialized
4. Elective
5. General
6. Workshop
7. Internship
8. Project

Each one of these types contain some courses to be passed, according to the educational regulations passed by the Ministry of Science, Research and Technology or Ministry of Health & Medical Education of Iran.

The grading system in this university is from 0 to 20. The minimum passing grade for a course leading to an Associate's Degree or a Bachelor's Degree is 10, for a course leading to a Master's Degree and Medical Sciences is 12 and for a course leading to a PhD Degree is 14.

Note : This document has been prepared at Mahboobeh's request. Scan the QR-code below to certify this document.

University Info :

Address : Central Organization: Nakhli St, Lashkarak Highway, Tehran, Iran
P.O.Box : 19569
Tel : (+98) : 2123320000
Email : int@pnu.ac.ir
Website : www.pnu.ac.ir

Course	Credits	Description
Conversation 2	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Basic) The ability to understand frequently used sentences and expressions in frequently used everyday situations. The ability to communicate in frequently used situations that require simple communication and exchange of information. The ability to simply describe the surrounding environment, personality and immediate needs in frequently used situations.
Translation technique	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Basic) Familiarizing students with the way of translating and equating nouns and verbs as well as some grammatical structures from Arabic to Persian and vice versa, considering the differences in the structure. Familiarizing students with how to translate various phrases and sentences from Arabic to Persian and vice versa, considering the differences in the sentence structure in the two languages, as well as familiarizing them with its different equivalents in Persian and Arabic.
Syntax 1	4	(Duration: 68 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Basic) Learning a course of Arabic syntax and grammar rules (in document topics/promotions) for correct reading, correct pronunciation, correct writing and correct understanding of the text. Syllabus : A brief reference to the history of syntax. Sentence structure in Arabic language. Arabic and subjunctive, types of Arabic and construction, method of composition. Fixation, installation and preposition of the present participle. Present sentence and its predicate, subject and subjunctive and their relationship with Verb.
Conversation 1	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Basic) Strengthening speaking and understanding skills in students. Syllabus : Teaching simple and everyday topics such as everyday conversations, the quality of speaking in different places such as office centers, airline offices, hotels, restaurants or simple sentences.

Conversation 3	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Major) Ability to listen and communicate in Arabic. Understanding the important points and the ability to communicate in situations and topics such as travel, hotel, life events, food, geographical information, etc. Important events in life in the past and future goals. Coordination to make a trip. Conversation at the airport and renting a taxi, booking a room in a hotel and conversation about the required services. Driving and vehicle. The most famous Arabic foods and main ingredients. They are maintaining fitness, physical fitness and health. Personality traits and mental states of people. Geographical information of a region or country.
Syntax 2	2	(Duration: 34 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Major) Learn some of the basic grammar rules that are used in about seventy-five percent of the Arabic language. Syllabus : Subject of letters (in short) - noun noun - verb of surprise - verbs of praise and guilt - passive object - absolute object - passive object - past participle - addition (real and verbal) - functions (inflection of letters - inflection of expression - exchange) .
Hadith texts	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Major) Developing the ability to read and understand and translate the texts of hadiths and Nahj al-Balagheh.
Phrase and syntax practice 1	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Major) Exercises of the book Mabadi al-Arabiya, exercises of the book Al-Dros al-Arabiya. Analysis and composition of the 30th part of the Holy Quran.

The history of literature from the Jahili period to the end of the Umayyad period	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Major) Familiarity with the history of literature from the beginning of Islam to the end of the Umayyad period and rereading examples of literary texts of this period. Getting to know the cultural, social, scientific and literary situation from the beginning of Islam until the end of the Umayyad period. Getting to know the literary texts of this period, especially sermons and letters. The descent of the Holy Qur'an and the beginning of the Islamic era, the effect of the Qur'an and hadith on the Arabic language and literature. The status of Arabic literature and the position of poetry at the beginning of Islam and the Umayyad era. The status of prose in the Islamic period. Description of the works of famous poets of the Islamic period. The most important literary centers in the Umayyad period. Political poetry of different parties in the Umayyad period. Types of ghazals and ghazal writers. Reference to ascetic poetry as a trend against the corruption of society, and its owners.
History of Andalusian literature	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Major) Familiarity with how the Arabic language and literature appeared and evolved in Andalusia and re-read examples of Andalusian literary texts. Acquaintance with the cultural, social, scientific and literary situation of Arabs in Andalusia and neighboring countries. Getting to know Andalusian literary works.
History of literature of the second Abbasid period	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Major) The course aims to acquaint students with the major literary genres, themes, and motifs that emerged during this period, including poetry, prose, and other forms of artistic expression. Additionally, the course will delve into the cultural and historical context that influenced the development of Arabic literature, including the political, social, and religious factors that shaped the cultural landscape of the era. By the end of the course, students should be able to critically analyze and interpret the literary works of the second Abbasid period, as well as recognize the cultural significance of this period in the development of Arabic literature and language.
Morphology 1	2	(Duration: 34 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Major) Familiarity with the lexical structure of the Arabic language and how it is constructed and transformed, which is known only by knowledge. Familiarity with the composition and attachment of words and the body of a sentence and its elements in Arabic and gaining the ability to read and construct sentences correctly in Arabic to the detriment of understanding the linguistic unit and marking words in sentences and phrases.

Contemporary poetry and prose texts 2 - Arabic	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Major) This course aims to enhance the understanding of the Arabic language and literature by introducing students to modern poetry and prose from the Arab world. Through the reading and analysis of selected texts, students will develop their critical thinking skills, gain insight into the cultural and social context of the texts, and improve their reading, writing, and language comprehension abilities. By the end of the course, students will be able to appreciate the beauty and complexity of contemporary Arabic poetry and prose and communicate effectively about their analysis and interpretation.
Conjugation 2	2	(Duration: 34 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Major) Familiarity with the construction and transformation of Arabic words and their semantic evolution based on the lexical transformations that are studied in pure science. Familiarity with the composition and attachment of words and sentence structure and its elements in Arabic and gaining the ability to read and construct sentences correctly in Arabic and understanding the semantic unit of the language and marking words in sentences and phrases.
Poetry and prose texts from the fall of Baghdad to the contemporary period	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Major) Acquaintance with the transformation and development of literature from poetry and prose and the causes of this transformation in this period from 656 to 1220 AH.
Nahj al-Balagha texts	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Major) To acquaint students with the lexical, semantic and literary aspects of Nahj al-Balagheh, and to acquire the necessary ability to understand and analyze this text. Familiarization with the special style of Nahj al-Balagheh.
History of literature of the first Abbasid period	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Major) Getting to know the Abbasid era and its many political and literary divisions. In this lesson, while analyzing the political, economic, social, cultural and literary factors, the great poets of the first Abbasid period until the end of the Golden Age are examined and analyzed. In this course, which has several divisions and the selection of each one will be at the teacher's discretion, a detailed analysis of the new conditions and situations of the Abbasid period and the impact of various issues including the new political conditions, the translation movement and other issues will be explored.

Poetry and prose texts of the first Abbasid period	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Major) The objective of this course is to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the literary works produced during the first Abbasid period (750-1258 CE). The course will focus on the analysis of various genres of poetry and prose, such as classical Arabic poetry, epics, and stories. Through the study of these texts, students will gain an understanding of the literary conventions, styles, and themes of the period, as well as the social, cultural, and political contexts that influenced the production of these works. By the end of the course, students will be able to identify and critically analyze different literary works from the first Abbasid period, evaluate their significance and impact, and relate them to the wider cultural and historical context of the time.
History of contemporary literature 1	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Major) Familiarity with the history and literature of contemporary Arabic prose and its formation factors, and familiarity with the most important works of contemporary Arabic prose and rereading and brief analysis of their works and styles. Knowledge of currents and schools of contemporary Arabic prose. Studying and investigating the types of contemporary Arabic prose, especially fiction (stories, short stories, short stories, novels and plays). The history of literary prose in Arabic literature from ancient to contemporary. The factors of the emergence and development of literary genres in this period. Realism and contemporary Arabic prose. The emergence of the contemporary Arabic novel and the study of some novels. Plays and the study of some of its key works. Short stories and writers of this literary genre. Review of philosophical literary writings. Reference to resistance literature and famous writers in this field.
Rhetorical sciences 1	4	(Duration: 68 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Major) Familiarity with the causes and methods of using different sentence styles in accordance with the current requirements in order to achieve rhetorical skills in order to find hidden meanings in literary expressions and finally to obtain a reflective look at the literary miracles of the Holy Quran.
Commentary texts	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Major) Familiarity with the language of interpretation of the Qur'an in the past and at present, and understanding the words and terms of the exegetical texts.

Contemporary poetry and prose texts 1	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Major) The course aims to expose students to various themes, styles, and literary techniques used in contemporary Arabic literature. Students will learn to identify and analyze the literary devices used by authors, such as metaphor, simile, imagery, symbolism, and irony. They will also explore the cultural and social contexts in which these texts were produced, examining how these factors influenced the authors' choices and the reception of their works. Through readings and discussions, students will improve their language skills and deepen their understanding of Arabic grammar, syntax, and vocabulary. The course will also focus on the development of critical thinking, argumentation, and research skills, as students will be expected to produce written analyses of the texts and to participate in class discussions and debates.
Poetry and prose texts of the second Abbasid period	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Major) The objective of this course is to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the literary works produced during the second Abbasid period, which spanned from the ninth to the eleventh century. Students will study the most important literary texts of this period, including poetry, fiction, and other forms of prose. They will gain a deep understanding of the literary techniques used by authors during this period, as well as the historical and cultural context in which these works were produced. Students will develop their skills in reading, analyzing, and interpreting literary texts, and they will also learn to appreciate the beauty and complexity of Arabic literature from this important period in history. Overall, the course aims to deepen students' knowledge and appreciation of Arabic literature and language, while also providing them with the tools they need to analyze and interpret literary texts in a critical and insightful manner.
Exercise of grammar and syntax 2	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Major) Exercises of Mabadi al-Arabiya book, volumes 1, 2, 3 and 4. Analysis and composition of the 29th chapter of the Holy Quran. Exercises of al-Dros al-Arabiya book and review of Jame al-Shawahed book.

History of contemporary literature 2	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Major) Acquaintance with the history of literature and literary texts of this period from the beginning of the movement until now, relying on poetry and familiarity with the most important works of contemporary Arabic poetry and rereading and analyzing examples of them. Getting to know the currents and schools of contemporary Arabic poetry. Studying and reviewing the types of contemporary Arabic poetry. Stages of change and evolution in the poetry of this period. Factors of the emergence and development of poetic types in this period. Resistance literature. Poetry schools and currents of this period in different countries of Lebanon, Syria, Iraq, and Egypt. Poetry and its characteristics.
Arabic poetry and prose texts in Iran from the beginning to the fall of Baghdad	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Major) Familiarization of students with a course of poetry and prose and poets and writers who have appeared in Iran. An introduction to the history of the conquest of Iran and the Iranians turning to Arabic literature. Khorasan poets in the Umayyad era. An introduction to the history of Arabic literature in the Taherian, Al-Buyeh and Seljuk governments.
Writing 2	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Major) Acquiring skills in sentence making and sentence writing and organizing text paragraphs at an intermediate level. Reading short stories on various topics and getting familiar with vocabulary and idioms of stories. Writing the summary of the story and its oral presentation. Completing incomplete stories. Short text writing. Writing practice with an overview of the applied styles of translation.
Writing 1	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Major) Acquiring skills in sentence making and sentence writing in Arabic at the introductory level. Familiarization with the writing rules of the Arabic language, such as the comma and the comma, the letter al-maqsoorah and the punctuation letter, the Arabic Kaf. Practice writing the following content: Noun sentence by using: demonstrative nouns, connected and disconnected pronouns, additional composition, descriptive composition, quasi-sentence. Present sentence using different types of verbs, types of objects, present tense; Basic and follower sentences, such as descriptive, haliye, stipulation and salah. Rewriting a variety of irregular sentences. Completing incomplete sentences. Reading short stories on various topics and getting familiar with their prose.

Laboratory 3	2	(Duration: 64 hours Practical) (Type of Course: Specialized) Improving the quality of oral communication and listening comprehension and strengthening oral language skills at an advanced level. Raising the level of listening skills and increasing understanding of material at an advanced level. Strengthening listening skills by relying on selected Arabic language films at an advanced level. Listening to lectures on various topics. Recounting the materials presented in educational tapes and videos. Presenting written and oral reports to Arabic language from the contents of educational audio and video files. Practicing completing the embedded words of the text with a focus on the listening part at an advanced level. Comprehension of the listening material at an advanced level in various subjects.
Research method and bibliography	3	(Duration: 51 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Specialized) This course will provide an opportunity for participants to establish or advance their understanding of research through critical exploration of research language, ethics, and approaches. The course introduces the language of research, ethical principles and challenges, and the elements of the research process within quantitative, qualitative, and mixed methods approaches. Participants will use these theoretical underpinnings to begin to critically review literature relevant to their field or interests and determine how research findings are useful in forming their understanding of their work, social, local and global environment .
Technical Foreign (English) language 1	2	(Duration: 34 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Specialized) Teaching words, terms and texts from common sources of the field of study in order to develop students' knowledge to use the scientific and technical sources of the field of study in English so that students can read English texts related to their field of study and understand its meanings to the desired extent.
Technical Foreign(English) Language 2	2	(Duration: 34 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Specialized) This subject aims at raising students' specific language ability in reading and writing academic texts of their own major disciplines. The subject will use reading texts from chapters of books or journal articles recommended by teachers of different majors for reading comprehension. These texts will also be used for analysis to enable students to develop an awareness of the genre in that particular discipline.
Prose and rhyme	4	(Duration: 68 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Specialized) Familiarity with the rules related to the names of paragraphs in a poem, geometric structure in verses, rules related to rhyme, poetic industries, etc.

Rhetorical sciences 2	4	(Duration: 68 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Specialized) Getting to know the principles and rules of presenting a meaning in different ways along with meeting the requirements of the present, in order to achieve rhetorical taste so that one can infer hidden meanings and purposes in the form of different styles and finally reflect on the literary miracles of the Holy Quran.
Laboratory 2	2	(Duration: 64 hours Practical) (Type of Course: Specialized) Raising the level of listening skills and increasing the understanding of the material at an intermediate level, as well as improving oral language skills (listening, conversation) at an intermediate level. Listening to selected tapes and films of the Arabic language at an intermediate level. Recounting the material presented in Educational tapes and videos. Conversation in class about the material listened to. Presentation of written and oral reports in Arabic from the contents of educational audio and video files. Exercise to complete the embedded words in the text focusing on the listening part at the intermediate level. Comprehension of the listening material. with intermediate level in various subjects.
Translation from Arabic to Persian and vice versa	3	(Duration: 48 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Specialized) Ability to read and understand Arabic texts and the ability to translate these texts into Persian as well as translate general and literary Persian texts into Arabic.
Laboratory 1	2	(Duration: 64 hours Practical) (Type of Course: Specialized) Learning the correct pronunciation of letters, words and sentences and acquiring listening comprehension skills. Learning the correct pronunciation of letters specific to the Arabic language and knowing the difference between them and Persian letters. Practicing the correct pronunciation of Arabic sentences through listening, communication and application. Teaching the correct pronunciation of letters and Arabic movements and exercises related to it. Practicing the listening skills of the Arabic language by relying on educational videos at the introductory level. Recounting the key words and terms of the educational videos. Conversation in the class about the contents of the listening section. Practicing the use of pronouns and verbs in the conjugation. Various according to videos and audio files. Understanding simple listening material in different subjects. Practicing completing the embedded words in the text focusing on the listening part.

Political politeness in Islam	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Elective) Acquaintance with the works of poets and writers whose political color prevails over other aspects and these works themselves have played a huge role in the evolution of Islam and Islamic sects and religions. The definition of political politeness and its difference with the politeness of Asr Rasool Akram. The beginning of political politeness. The poems that were written in front of each other during the battles between the poets of Islam and the poets of Quraysh in Badr, Uhud, Khandaq, etc.
Recitation and translation of the Holy Quran	2	(Duration: 34 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Elective) The purpose of this lesson is correct recitation of the Qur'an and its correct translation, and on the other hand, in the obligatory recitations such as prayer and recitation of the Qur'an, attention should be paid to the issues mentioned by jurists and scholars of Tajweed.
Arabic newspapers and magazines	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Elective) Student's familiarity with daily terms of Arabic magazines and newspapers of Iran and other Arab and Islamic countries and student's mastery of writing in modern Arabic language.
Letter writing and summary writing	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Elective) Getting to know the rules of letter writing and practical practice in writing style. Writing various letters such as official, administrative, commercial, etc.
Ahl al-Bayt committed literature	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: Elective) Acquaintance with the works of scholars and Shiite writers whose political side and intention prevails over other aspects. Definition of political politeness and commitment to Shia. The history of political and committed Shiite literature. Its evolution in Islam, a selection of poets' works.
Persian Language	3	(Duration: 51 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: General) Familiarity with Persian language and reading literary texts, poetry and prose in Iranian Persian literature.
Applied Ethics	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: General) Familiarity of students with the moral standards of Islam about the most important aspects of daily life and creating a context for a greater tendency to accept the moral standards of Islam on individual and social issues.

Thematic Commentary of Holy Quran	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: General) Familiarity with some life-giving concepts of the Holy Quran in the form of thematic attitude.
Islamic Revolution of Iran	2	(Duration: 34 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: General) Theoretical acquaintance with the causes and factors of the Islamic Revolution and analytical study of cultural, social and political developments of the Islamic Revolution and subsequent issues.
Islamic Ideology I (Genesis & Resurrection)	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: General) Explain the necessity of Muslim students to pay attention to religion and religious categories, deepen and expand information and strengthen students' theism and faith in the field of theology and resurrection.
Physical Education 2	1	(Duration: 34 hours Practical) (Type of Course: General) In this course, students choose their favorite special sports such as Ping Pong, Football, Basketball, Volleyball, etc, and they will professionally be educated at one of these sports
Foreign (English) Language	3	(Duration: 51 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: General) General Language courses, offered at all levels of the Intensive Language Program, seek to improve students' Language skills in a great variety of discourse settings. Language skills addressed include: listening, fluency development, oral intelligibility, reading, grammar, writing, and vocabulary development.
Islamic Ideology II(Prophecy & Imamate)	2	(Duration: 32 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: General) Becoming familiar with instructions in Islam, continuing "Islamic Thought I" discussions. Expanding students' knowledge about religion, prophethood, Islam, Imamate and leadership, which is divided into three sections.
Analytical history of early Islam	2	(Duration: 34 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: General) Familiarity of students with how Islam emerged and spread and the way of transition from ignorant society to Islamic society.
Physical Education 1	1	(Duration: 32 hours Practical) (Type of Course: General) Physical education course is a general unit that aims to improve students 'physical fitness and the specialized field is not taught in this unit and the factors that should be strengthened to improve students' physical fitness are: speed, strength, endurance: musculoskeletal, agility and flexibility.

Population and family planning	1	(Duration: 17 hours Theoretical) (Type of Course: General) The objective of the module is the training and education of health care workers in developing countries on public health and programmatic approaches for family planning. The training can be based at various levels with emphasis on the importance of informed reproductive choices, with the aim of improving the health of women and their families. The module would also include basic knowledge on counseling and informed decision making to highlight the importance of providing appropriate information and ensuring proper choices are made. Family planning services are usually good entry points for women's health services, but these are also important components of other services such as antenatal and post-partum care, and even child care, even at the primary health care level in developing countries so as to reach all those in need with equity and efficiency.
--------------------------------	---	---